

Objection to a Planning Permit Application

Objection to a Planning Permit Application

How will you be affected if a permit is granted?

Any person who may be affected by the granting of a permit may object.

- If you object, Council must consider the objection unless you withdraw it.
- If you object you must state the reasons why and say how you would be affected by the grant of a permit.
- Council must reject an objection that it considers has been primarily made to secure or maintain a direct or indirect commercial advantage for the objector.
- Council must make a copy of every objection available at its office for any person to inspect during office hours.
- Council will not decide on an application until after the date shown on the notice.
- If you object you will be notified in writing of Council's decision.
- If you object and are not satisfied with Council's decision, you may lodge an application for review with the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

Privacy Statement

The personal information requested on this form is being collected by Council to assist Council in the registration of your objection and assessment of the issues that you have raised. The personal information will be used solely by Council for that purpose or directly related purposes. Council may disclose this information to the applicant and their representatives, neighbouring property owners and/or occupiers and any other parties who may have an interest in the application. Council must make this information available to comply with the Planning and Environment Act 1987.

If this information is not collected, Council will be unable to thoroughly consider your comments, inform you of its decision on the application or notify you of any further action. The person(s) objecting understands that the personal information provided is for the registration of their objection and the processing and assessment of a planning application.

Council staff are happy to discuss your privacy queries, however if you require further assistance please contact our Privacy Officer on 5258 1377.
